

Trucking Services Regional

IDI is the safest and most reliable choice for local and regional shipping to improve your distribution and consolidation logistics.

Our team of experienced drivers operates an up-to-date fleet of tractors and trailers that are always well maintained. We handle both standard and non-conforming freight, and ensure on-time pick up and delivery of each load. Finally, we track and trace shipments daily to ensure that there are never any surprises.

That safe, consistent performance is part of the reason why IDI is a multi-year winner of the ATA Outstanding Safety Award and is recognized as an Oregon Trusted Carrier.

Our Customer Service Advantage

IDI hires the best. We employ a full-time, benefited team of experienced drivers who operate from our warehouse and crossdock located in Portland, Oregon.

- All drivers are screened, trained and managed in accordance with all Federal, State and local regulations.
- Attention to driver quality not only ensures the best service possible, but IDI maintains one of the lowest employee turnover rates in the industry.

Personal customer service is an IDI priority. Whether an order is placed on the phone or over the fax, the customer service representative assigned to your account personally handles the progress of the load and keeps you informed of its status.

Our Equipment Advantage

IDI owns an up-to-date fleet of tractors and trailers to provide you with reliable and flexible service. We assure a high level of maintenance and cleanliness to handle a shipment in the most professional way possible. We have experience with a variety of equipment to ensure truckload and LTL shipments are transported properly, including:

- Step-deck
- Flatbed
- Van

IDI provides standard and heavy-haul container drayage services anywhere in the Northwest and beyond. Our 4-axle tractor and chassis combination legally handles a lading and container weight of up to 62,000 pounds.

IDI handles the most challenging non-conforming loads including heavy machinery, metals, and other industrial freight. Solid experience and the proper equipment ensure we can handle such loads safely and efficiently.

IDI provides dedicated trucking services for companies who prefer to outsource their trucking needs and want to use reliable, professional, and uniformed drivers. IDI can meet your entire long and short term needs.
